- Employees covered under the provision of the inter-agency Career Transition Plan (ICTAP) and Career Transition Assistance Plan (CTAP) (displaced VA Employees) eligibles will be given priority consideration for vacancies within the local commuting area for which they are well qualified. Applicants requesting this consideration must attach appropriate proof of the ICTAP eligibility with their application. Well qualified is defined as an applicant, without any further training, can perform the major duties of the position which includes coordination of computerized scheduling of all monthly ward rotational assignments for over 200 medical students, interns, residents, attending staff, consult service staff for all surgical subspecialties, and fellows assigned to each subspecialty who all rotate to the VA at different times each month.

MAJOR DUTIES:

The incumbent manages the OHSU/VA Operative Care Division (OCD) Residency Programs, including coordination of computerized scheduling of all monthly ward rotational assignments for over 200 medical students, interns, residents, attending staff, consult service staff for all surgical subspecialties, and fellows assigned to each subspecialty who all rotate to the VA at different times each month. These schedules change each 30 days. Incumbent controls and continually updates all divisional on-call schedules and attending schedules. In addition, schedules weekly and monthly conferences. Incumbent independently schedules and manages each year's new intern orientation program, working closely with various OHSU and VA departments, including but not limited to the Department of Surgery and GME offices. All incoming interns must have background checks, fingerprinting and computer accesses in place before the VA orientation date, all coordinated by this position. Additionally, will prepare monthly electronic timecard listing daily schedules for each resident and fellow assigned to the VA to allow for proper reimbursement to the VA via the OHSU disbursement agreement. Manages the Otolaryngology and Vascular Fellowship Program, and the Dental and Eye care Residency/Fellowship Programs. This includes management of each candidate's interview and selection process, coordination of the VA hiring processes with both OHSU and the VA Human Resources Division. Additionally, incumbent manages and continually updates the online evaluation system using OHSU online programs. Use of this OHSU software requires coordination with the partner department at OHSU and their special training.

THIS POSITION IS IN THE BARGAINING UNIT

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

Eligibility: U.S. Office of Personnel Management Qualification Standards Handbook for GS-344, Management and
